(words & music by chips moman / don gibson)I'll just jump in there whenever I get the chancel think I forgot to wear my cupThat's just my way of loving youThis time we're really breaking upI know I forgot to wear my cupDaa da dumThose happy hours that we once knewSo apart still make me blueI know that time heals a broken heartBut time has stood still since we've been apartI can't stop loving youI said I made up my mindTo live in memory of a lonesome timel can't stop wanting youIt's useless to saySo I'll just live my lifeIn dreams of yesterdayThose happy hours that we once knewSo long ago you know they still make be blueThey say that time heals a broken heartBut time has stood still since we've been apartI can't stop loving youI said I made up my mindTo live in memory of a lonesome timel can't stop wanting youIt's useless to saySo I'll just live my lifeIn dreams of yesterdayMmmmm my life in dreams of yesterday
