My thumbs are in your eyes and they keep fucking pushing

there's a leach on my neck the fangs sink into my hips I burnt alive and the flames were the only warmth you ever showed me.

well tonight I set your bed aflame I live to watch you burn face your punishment cause there is no forgiveness I will watch your tortured existence

I live to watch you burn

your misery will take a blade to your skin

I'll be there to guide you through mutilation decapitation

from the ground I can touch the sky despite this fight I will never die

I hope you get FUCKED DEAD this is hell, your severed body's left to dwell not a trick just a whore choking on a dick your desires led to me building fires in your home, you shouldn't sleep alone

I fucking triumph
SUCK ON THAT
