"The Forgotten Sunrise"

It seems to be a new day
but something is missing
The light of the day
Brightness of the sun
Just a solar eclipse?
An error of mother earth?
No! It's a hint of our fate
But nobody knows what it means
.....Maybe.....
Good betrayed upon the evil light turns to black Darkness overflows our world and ghostly silence spreads among us
.....But.....
What's the motive?
Where's the meaning?

The forgotten sunrise
A black day in our thoughts forgotten, lost in infinity Please! Never let it happen Fear and despair occupies me
When I think of this moment which will surely come...
Sometimes, in the soonest future
The darkest moment in the story of mankind
It's the forgotten sunrise
The loosing of the warmth in our life
Darkness and silence rules
