Brother we stick together. We fall apart.
While we haunt these hollow halls. Inside her father's residence.

When empty heads fill crowded rooms,
I can hear my own spine crack.
I keep my collar up and wear a lions mask.
I feel their stares, they violate me.
Bodies pile in suffocating,
Firewalk the coals there's no turning back once you're gone.

[Chorus:]
Meet by the back door run for our social lives.
Sell your soul. Revive. I'm alive!
Now we're faster than fashion when facism's in.
And its never out of style...
Xeroxicide.

Your smell like sex and cigarettes, this moment is a blur.
Everyone hold down your favourite girl.
I feel their stares, they violate me.
Bodies pile in suffocating,
Firewalk the coals there's no turning back once you're gone.

[Chorus]
Brother we stick together. We fall apart.
While we haunt these hollow halls. Inside oh,
Brother we stick together. We fall apart.

[Chorus]

Xeroxicide [2x]
