Damned to wear your lies like necklaces of lead Would you drag this lake, and pull me out, if I sank with them
No

If it makes your eyes roll back,
Roll back in your head then I,
I hope that you burn up
Before you hit the ground

Now I see through you and there's nowhere for the pig to hide

I'm that crucifix around your neck,
I'm bullshit (like you)

If it makes your eyes roll back,
Roll back in your head then I,
I hope that you burn up
Before you hit the ground
