Hidden within my darkest sin the dead can hear my darkest fear

The murder remembered so plain in my head

Back from the grave in my thoughts you are dead

The murder remembered so plain in my head

Back from the grave in my thoughts you are dead

I am the killer of killers a fading memory

And my twisted mind surfaces into your reality

The whore was so beautiful after I ripped her apart

She was a nice girl and had a good heart

All alone in a deck of cards blackest diamonds bleeding hearts

I am Gemini for I am two within my sin. I'm still killing you
