Standing breathless before the throne of Christ
Judgment fallen, leaving you crying
Why God why, where is your savior?

Mindless followers bow to your altar
Mockery, now it's time to face truth
You have been lied to constantly
Truth is in Christ soon you will see

Your pagan religion full of deception
Cannot conceive your eternal damnation
Satan has led you away from redemption
Blood of the Son is your only salvation

Liar leading the weak to burn with you in hell
Lucifer you will lose, you were overthrown
You were overthrown, you were overthrown

Defeated in the beginning your anger fueled with envy
God's perfect image, you set out to destroy
But you're unsuccessful
Because your end is now approaching

Heed prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy warned
Heed prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy, heed prophecy

Prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy you were warned
Heed prophecy
