There's gotta be something
Worth having, worth all this
In my life at last one thing
That I can go along with

I lost half of what I could have been
When I realised you weren't meant for me
I wonder which gut feeling to go with
'Til I realised -
That that's all changed
For good, forever

There's gotta be someone
I can count on and fend for
In my life at last someone
Who'd make me surrender

'Cause half of what I should have been
Walks away when you walk out on me
And I wonder which gut feeling to go with
'Til I realised -
That that's all changed
For good

No more worries and doubts the good will come out
I've changed for good, forever
Wait until you see I've changed, for good, forever
Say you'll see how much i have changed
For good, forever
Wait until you see I've changed, for good, forever

Just wait until you see
How much a change could make you see
'Cause you don't know better than me
