the moon always rises
when you are on the run... you're hungry for flesh in decay

armed with weapon armed with spade and hoe looking for a megalithic grave after dine with duke humphrey pay homage to the corpse an opulent meal lies ahead open the coffin

rise to the bait
the person of hereulean stature

a storm of paguy maggots gets also very hungry now you are their living food!

when you are on the run...
