Senses lost in the forest of madness sweat blood stops pulsation eyes watching at black silhouettes a biting conflict deep inside

MENTAL CONFLICT

a fight between flesh and it's spirit an emptied brain by a mental vacuum every breath die in the throat a suffocation of the flesh the heart rots in sea of tears a tremendous anguish overwhelms the consciousness hear the lamentation soul as it experience hollich tortures fears of death, infernal illusions, suicidal tendencies, spiritual misery
