I've waited and given the chance again
I'd do it all the same, but either way
I'm always outplayed, up on your down days
I left it the right way, to start again

Now watch me rise up and leave
All the ashes you made out of me
When you said that we were wrong, life goes on
Just look how long I've agreed

Now watch me rise up and leave
All the ashes you made out of me
When you said that we were wrong, life goes on
Just look how long I've agreed

Out of place like a gem on a coal face
Lost on the right way, it's all the same
'Cause I've had my hopes raised, riding the wrong waves
Scared when you felt safe to start again

Now watch me rise up and leave
All the ashes you made out of me
When you said that we were wrong, life goes on
Just look how wrong I could be

Now watch me rise up and leave
All the ashes you made out of me
When you said that we were wrong, life goes on
You blew me away, away, away, away

Now watch me rise up and leave
All the ashes you made out of me
When you said that we were wrong, life goes on
Just look how wrong I could be

Now watch me rise up and leave
All the ashes you made out of me
When you said that we were wrong, life goes on
You blew me away, away, away, away

I sink like a stone, I lost my control

I sink like a stone, I lost my control
I sink like a stone, I lost my control
