When I lost you, I played a part I never really knew
Letting go, was the best thing I could do
Before you turn that knife
You have to say, you'll cut me down
And letting go is effortless now
You found me out

But I can't come down anymore
I'm here till you say, it isn't so
I'm in hope
And I can't come down anymore
No, I'm on a road, I've never known
And there's no way home

I've found something, I would die from now
I don't feel fit to live
Are you the one it finishes with?
I spend my days thinkin' of you
Praying you would think of me
Was I wrong to let you just leave me?

But I can't come down anymore
I'm here till you say it isn't so
I'm in hope
And I can't come down anymore
No, I'm on a road, I've never known
On my own

And I wanna know
What things you see up close in lies they disappear
And I wanna know, if I was just a waste of time for you
I want you to say, if you're with him alone or someone new
I can't come down 'til you do

And I can't come down anymore no
Until you say it isn't so
I'm in hope
And I can't come down anymore
No, I'm on a road I've never known
On my own

But I can't come down anymore
No, I'm on a road I've never known
And there's no way home
