All that was left was the present that you got me
I was gonna break it
But now I need the money
And I just don't know what I should do

So I take another drink and then rush the way I'm falling
It's not the ones who win and who are keeping score It's what losers are for

You look like a believer in your eyes
I was licked by the nose 'till I found out
You've got a straight honest struggle that I gave God
his time, more time

I was all hate until you kicked my heart open
Now I'm in lane
But you're not taking over me
You've really got me fooled

It's not my trick but I've seen it done many times
And so I think I've learned all your evil lies
But every feeling needs proof

You look like a believer in your eyes
I was licked by the nose 'till I found out
You've got a straight honest struggle that I gave God
his time, more time
You look like a believer in your eyes
I was licked by the nose 'till I found out
You've got a straight honest struggle that I gave God
his time, more time

I found out what the hate is for tonight
Now I found out what the waste is for tonight
Now I found out what the hate is for tonight
Now I found out what the waste is for tonight
Now I found out what the waste is for tonight
Now I found out what the waste is for tonight
Now I found out what the waste is for tonight
Now I found out what the waste is for tonight
Now I found out
