"Madelaine"

Don't let it go
I feel like everyone's calling my name and
I'm still alone
You ought to know
That I would change everything just to
Sing to you while you're alone

And later I'll wade in again
Over my head, all my mind
I wanted to see what you meant
And I'm out of time
I'm useless and stupid, impulsive
I had you, I let you go
Something inside me it stops me
I wish I could break its hold

I need to break out of my skin
Throw my hide in the ring
Break down and change everything
Before we rush in again
But I'll never chase you or call you up
Just to see where we'd end
I wanted to feel how I felt
On that day I met Madelaine

I need to break out of skin
Throw my hide in the ring
Break down and change everything
Before we rush in
But I'll never chase you or call you up
Just to see where we'd end
I wanted to feel how I felt
On that day I met Madelaine
