Out of nothing you came to my arms and you're right
I fell every time
You're the first and the last time that I'll ever try
So dry your eyes

I'll say goodbye
I'll say goodbye

I'm left hanging like all dancing bears
I need rope to keep me in line
I can't stop them, there's more bombshells coming
I choke more words, more lies

I'll say goodbye
I'll say goodbye

I can't believe it's come to this Banging on a sinking ship, hoping someone hears my list
For every trial I take a fall
You never notice it no more

What we had won't conquer all
While the shots still ringing out
You do the worst to bring me down
You do the worst to take me out

I'll say goodbye
I'll say goodbye
