Look what you've organized
Do you believe all those lies
There's no courage in hatred
Only in love
Look what you've organized

Attack, defend, you live a fantasy
Nobody wants anything that belongs to you
Sometimes I'd like to kick your fucking ass
But I guess you're just a human too

Why? Why are you here?
You're looking for a reason to hate
So you can fuck someone up
You'd hate yourself if you had the chance
I guess you already do
You fuck yourself up
Every night.

If you have to fight
Then fight the violence
That rules your life
Said gun, said knife
It's going to take your life
