When good times are over and you crawl for miles just to hold her I'll tap on your shoulder ohh yeah
I'll tap on your shoulder ohh yeah

The girl won't stop till she's told ya, She feels that weak cause she's older so rest on my shoulder ohh yeah
so rest on my shoulder ohh yeah

And some people may say that laughter will return and some say they won't smile there's nothing left to learn the deaf ears sad they pall? will quietly start to burn sure faith in man hasn't gone its on my shoulders ohh yeah

its on my shoulders ohh yeah
its on my shoulders ohh yeah
its on my shoulders ohh yeah
