All of the luck I had I wasted,
I had my chance, I didn't take it,
Ooh no,
I got so near I could taste it,
Now all of my life has changed,
Everybody wants to know my name right now,
There's nothing you could steal I wouldn't allow;
Feel free.

I thought alone I'd never make it,
Stressed and made to see my failings,
How I wish I could change it,
Now all of my life has changed,
Everybody wants to know my name right now,
If you don't let 'em, show 'em how and why to find out,
It's easier to run so stand your ground;
Feel free.

All of my life I couldn't make it,
Trusted you so much but you left me,

Ooh no,
Now I wish you would take me,
Now all of my life has changed,
Everybody wants to know my name right now,
If you don't let 'em, show 'em how and why to find out,
It's easier to run so stand your ground,
When everybody knows your name and now you'll feel free.

Laa la la.. (etc.)

Oooh ooh ooh.. (etc.)
