

Embrace The End

I expect to find the real you among all those lies,
Two-face beauty,
Why'd you turn and walk away,
With everything I fucking did,
I fucking had my say,
But you, you hardly know my name,
And I, I don't care,
I expect to find the real you among all those lies,
After all those fucking years,
You're dead to me,
You became some one else,
You fucking sold me out,
You fucking sold me out,
My heart is empty,
Just like your words before,
My love is dead,
Just like your words before,
I am not the first one and i'm sure i'm not the last,
Fuck You
