

Embrace The End

"Die Trying"

I'm not sorry for anything I fucking said,
You've been warned a thousand times,
And you never tried to quit,
But you don't care so why the fuck should I give a shit,
And you don't care that we're the ones to deal with it,
Nobody wins in this game,
You never said that you wanted to give up your family,
But every time your will power dies,
A part of you dies with me,
But you don't care so why the fuck should I give a shit,
And you don't care that we're the ones to deal with it,
Everything I said, I said because i cared,
And everything you heard was love,
Die trying,
You can't stop what's killing a part of you,
This time i died inside
