Stand up for what's right,
Everything you said to me, it turned out to be lies,
Your words came out, Your eyes rolled back,
And now your fucking trust is gone,
There are times when I want to grab you by the fucking throat
For everything you ever said you ever said to me,
I fucking won't let you tak away what's right,
Everything you said to me, it turned out to be lies,
I took a lot of advise from you,
Don't turn away,
Look in my eyes and don't you turn away
