It' s hiding from daylight inside the eastern crypt
You have seen him and shivered with his presence
He' s a killer but yet not very unlike me
A bi-product of a dimensional journey

[Vers 1:]

Something tells me I' ve seen him somewhere before
Maybe I lost a part of myself inside the rift
Flashing fragments turned into place
Incomplete as he needs the final piece, "it's me you want"

[Chorus:]

Chased by a shadow
How can we possible escape
Try to keep your heads low
But he already knows my second take

Gelhein... Who is calling me by my true name?

[Vers 2:]

How come the shadows grow before me

Caught in their paralyzing embrace
Maybe it's time to turn myself in
But I can't just give up and write down: The End

[Solo:]

[Chorus:]

Chasing the shadow
I take back what was already mine
And there's nothing left for you
New signs form in the heaven

( Gelhein... A telepathic voice still calls me by my true name )
