Run, cause you can't hide
The beast he lingers inside
The truth it must be known
He preys on those who're alone
He'll slowly sip your breath
And lead you to a sudden death
There's no use in cryin', there's no way out
It's coming for you
There is no doubt

(Chorus)
He'll come when you're alone
And steal your masterly throne
He'll prey on your mortal soul
As a means to settle his toll
What are you waiting for
You, you'd better run
Cause, you cannot hide
Do, do you know who you are?
You're the phantom

Try, but you cannot hide
The pain within your eyes
Yeah, you know it's real
It's just how you feel
When it ends it's always clear
That everybody must live in fear
For they know, the day will come
That brings the wrath of the evil one

Lines drawn beyond your side
Hurl'd in hatred and spite
Victims of the unknown
You'll pray and crawl to atone
When it ends it's always clear
That everybody must live in fear
For they know, the day will come
That brings the wrath of the evil one
