Fragments broken, as day moves to night
Touched by motives that see no right
I've kissed the darkness, now block out the light

Dark angel, where's my kiss?
Oh, and I've never felt the true pain of happiness

Lying, tearing at the seams,
You, you're just a hazed illusion, a fake reality,
Run, dark angel, set me free, where do I run
When I've got these filthy feelings, taking hold of me

Frenzied wait, but take your time,
Watching the angel, calm as ice,
And don't make a move, until it feels right

Run, Dark angel, where's my kiss?
I've never felt the true pain of happiness

Lying, tearing at the seams,
You, you're just a hazed illusion, a fake reality,
Run, dark angel, set me free, where do I run
When I've got these filthy feelings, taking hold of me

Lying, tearing at the seams,
You, you're just a hazed illusion, a fake reality,
Run, dark angel, set me free, where do I run
When I've got these filthy feelings, taking hold of me
