City ruins glowing
Time falls through an hourglass
Laughter from the future
Buried secrets from the past

Sunbleached bones, holding the key
Yet another clue
The prophet said to me

Echoes of Eternity
Drifting clouds of stars
Ancient lights but now I see
Echoes of Eternity
The answer's drifting

Drifting far from me

Imprints in Jurassic rock
Where antique cities lie
A comet from the tapestry
Etches fire in the sky

The wise men know the questions
The questions for the key
Yet another clue
The prophet said to me
