Taken to a fantasy world
Of make believe and broken dreams
They're in the shadows, faceless eyes are watching me
And don't be waiting...
They're not gonna stop us, they're not gonna stop us,
they're

Screaming, time to return to you
Laughter, echoed in an empty room...

Bring it back, bring it back,
'Cos nothing is real
I don't know, I don't know weather to feel anymore
Forget us tomorrow, cos it's our fate, fade away

White walls, fallen to decay
Words of stone, in their place
Return, hero, to the home you knew
Lonely paths surrounding you
And don't be waiting...
They're not gonna stop us, they're not gonna stop us,
they're

Crawling softly, Oh I've been in this dream before Why won't you wake up, why won't you wake up anymore
And as I listen to this silence looming on,
I realize this place I knew is gone, they're not gonna stop us, they're

Paradise paradise,
'Cos nothing is real
I don't know, I don't know weather to feel anymore
Forget us tomorrow, cos it's our fate, fade away

Sacrifice, sacrifice,
Cos nothing is real
I don't know, I don't know weather to feel anymore
Forget us tomorrow, cos it's our fate, fade away
