

Emergency Gate "Hold Me Again"

Visit "Hold Me Again" on MotoLyrics.com

As I'm watching the rain
Washin' the world
Trying to think about the things I've thrown away
Walkin' the streets towards a dead end

Spreadin' my thoughts but still see your smile
Shining through this cold white night on me I reach
Into the dark trying to feel you...

Once again

I look and I see
I sin and I'll be
But never drowned in shame

As I face time
The hold in your arms
I'll always call your name
In your eyes - still I can see
Myself deeply sinkin' - free me with your touch
Just don't ask and please don't turn away

I will break all those dark and scary
Tombstones of tomorrow
Bring me light
Carry the storms away...

Once again

I look and I see
I sin and I'll be
But never drowned in shame

As I face time
The hold in your arms
I'll always call your name
