Lookin' for somethin'
And I thought I found the key
But I changed my mind

Lookin' for somethin'
I just could not let it be
Now I find

This world is not an easy rider;
It's been a tigers walk
To see the light of heaven
You need the eyes of a hawk

We have the power, we can make a change
There ain't no mistake, it's down to me and you

We have the power, we can make a change
Stop pretendin' we got nothin' to lose

We have the power, we can make a change
There's nothin' been done, that we can't undo

We have the power, we can make a change
There's fire in the heavens:
It's burnin' in the Hand of Truth

Lookin' for somethin'
I gotta find a new frontier
And start to climb

Lookin' for somethin'
I gotta find another sphere
There's no more time

We're standin' on the ledge of madness
That's where the rocks are held
I hear the cry of freedom:
"We have the power to change the world!"

We have the power!

We have the power, we can make a change
There ain't no mistake, it's down to me and you

We have the power, we can make a change
Stop pretendin' we got nothin' to lose

We have the power, we can make a change
There's nothin' been done, that we can't undo

We have the power, we can make a change
There's fire on the mountain:
It's burnin' in the Hand of Truth
