I wish I could put you into words
So it would all make sense
I'd write you a thousand times
Your faces in pages

Run your answers the best way you can
It's that you never thought that you'd be coming in last
You're always the same way
Your fresh starts and stained hands wear you out

The weekend towns, the picture frames
It's my favorite shirt, I'm so glad you came
And I think you're wrong, it's not just vacation
It's more than boys and girls and late nights

Run your answers the best way you can
It's that you never thought that you'd be coming in last

You said that you could and that's all that you wanted
To bring to the show and then leave without reasons
Who cares if it's right, it's been more then engaging
It's all walks and talks but these faces you're making
now

Don't bother now, you just said enough
Don't bother now, you just said enough
Don't bother now, you just said enough
Don't bother now, you just said enough

Don't bother now, you just said enough
Don't bother now, you just said enough
Don't bother now, you just said enough
Don't bother now

To bring to the show and then leave without reasons
Who cares if it's right, it's been more then engaging
And all walks and talks but these faces you're making

To bring to the show and then leave without reasons
Who cares if it's right, it's been more then engaging

And all walks and talks but these faces you're making
The faces you're making now
