Visit "The Last Christmas" on MotoLyrics.com

This year is different than last,
and all of the Christmas has past,
the carolers singing and sleigh bells are ringing.
but there's still one thing I must ask.

Please don't leave.
there's still presents under the tree.

It's you, you, you I need.

The fireplace is warm and dry,
the wind soaks the trees on this cold winters night.
as you tell me we've shared out last
there's just one thing that I have to ask.
Please don't leave,
there's still presents under the tree.

It's you, you, you I need.

A Christmas story is on the t.v.,
Randy is showing how the piggies eat.
And I'm laughing through the tears,
that was our movie for all of these years.

Please don't leave,
there's still presents under the tree.

It's you, you, you I need.
