And my heart left my chest so forgive me
As you leave to find that next something new But I can't for the life of me remember when You changed your words I love you to saying you don't know
Oh oh
Just know that you can't take back what you said
Darling i'm not in the forgiving mood
You kept on replying it was all in my head
Well you're just a liar
And I've got the proof
I've got the proof
So with these few words you'll erase me
2 years of our life's meant nothing to you
But this fool you made out of me has a lesson learned
You can't trust a lover who was never a friend
Oh oh
The end
Oh oh
Just know that you can't take back what you
said
Darling i'm not in the forgiving mood
You kept on replying it was all in my head Well you're just a liar and I've got the proof
I got the proof
Oh ohh ohh
I would have offered my life taking you home
Made you my wife
But hearing you now feeling your mouth with the cowards lies
You're just a disguise
Of the girl of my dreams
But I know she's waiting for me
So I'll open my eyes to the day that's before me
And leave here to find the next something new
