I feel blessed today
Touched by an angel I swear it's true
I feel loved today
Look around me and the sky is blue
God is watching over

I feel God in me
He's in everything I see
I feel God inside
He's never gonna hide
I feel God in me

I feel happy today
The sunshine is out and bright
I feel brave today
No fear and no fright
God is watching over

I feel God in me
He's in everything I see
I feel God inside
He's never gonna hide
I feel God in me

I feel sad today
Dumped and all alone on the corner
I feel cold today
The day isn't gonna get any warmer
I thought God was watching over

I can't feel you Lord
Am I ignored
I can't feel you Lord
Is it you I can't afford?
Where are you Lord?

Will I find you God?
