have mercy on me an endless blankness is rising I face my own demise and realize in my mind I'm already dead fire return into my life fire come back in inject your spirit into

my mind
fire don't you

don't you ever leave my side
it's high time
guide me through life
from the darkest valley to the far side of the moon

my worst enemies
a magnetic attraction towards me full speed exceed the limit this is far beyond my control

fire come back inject
my mind fire don't you

it's high time

it's high time
