"Killer's Kiss"

Is it wise to touch the fire?
Is it good to stroke and kiss the blade?

Now the seven seas are mine
Gently I go overboard
Like a snail I'm crawling safely
Along the sharp and shiny edge of the blade

Now the seven seas are mine
Gently I go overboard
Floating through the endless dark depths of the sea
In a sphere of glass
Oh, Gravity's nonsense now yes I'm safe here just cut
Off from the world above

I guess it's not right to behave my way
And I know it's not cool to take all these drugs again
And again

Now the seven seas are mine
Gently I go overboard
Floating through the endless dark depths of the sea
In a sphere of glass
Oh, Gravity's nonsense now yes I'm safe here just cut
Off from the world above

Now the seven seas are mine
Gently I go overboard
Floating through the endless dark depths of the sea
In a sphere of glass
Oh, Gravity's nonsense now yes I'm safe here just cut
Off from the world above

I'm floating... watch me floating in... yes I'm Floating... in my sphere of glass
