Follow me into hades where the shades of

Heroes wander despondently

Among spirits of lesser souls

In your dull eyes all your lies unite

All your tears ally

For absolution

Pledge allegiance to the damned

When you meet the unseen one

May he grant all access

To the isle of the blessed

In the harbour of death

Shiploads of broken souls are waiting for salvation

Salvation in everlasting bliss

In your dull eyes all your lies unite

All your tears ally

For absolution

Pledge allegiance to the damned

When you meet the unseen one

May he grant all access

To the isle of the blessed

Pledge allegiance to the damned

When you meet the unseen one
May he grant all access
To the isle of the blessed
Pledge allegiance to the damned
When you meet the unseen one
May he grant all access
To the isle of the blessed
Pledge allegiance to the damned
When you meet the unseen one
May he grant all access
To the isle of the blessed
