When I look into your eyes
At 12:48 every afternoon
I see not but a friend
But an amazing person
I love you that's all I no
Now don't rush off
Now don't you go
Cause

Everythings falling into place
Everythings going my way
I got the sun on my side
Everythings not gonna be the same
All but our friendships gonna change
And nothing can bring me down
Today

You and I
Maybe not
But me loving you is all I've got
It may seem like a little
But to me it's what I want
I told you how I feel
Now open up you can't keep those lips
Sealed
And
Everythings falling into place
Everythings going my way
I've got the sun on my side
Everythings not gonna be the same
All but our friendships gonna change
And nothing can bring me down
Today

When life gives you lemons
You make lemonade
But sweet or not
Loves what I want
And what I've got

Everythings falling into place
Everythings going my way

I've got the sun on my side
Everythings not gonna be the same
All but our friendships gonna change
And nothing can bring me down
Oh oh oooh
Nothing can bring me down, down, down
Today
