Everything about you was so special
I thought our love would last
Standing by your side, making me so strong
'Cause you were my man whom I will always love

What about me?
What about us?
What about all the things you said?
What about me?

What about me?
What about love?
What about all the things we had?
What about me? No, no, no

Lies and secrets came into our lives
Our love faded away
You closed the door leaving me behind
But what means a farewell? Is this the end?

What about me?
What about us?
What about all the things you said?
What about me?

What about me, me?
What about love?
What about all the things we had?
What about me?

Come summer with joy to ease my pain
Come birds in the tree to sing me a song
Come waves of the see to take me away
Com angels to be by my side

What about me?
What about us?
What about all the things you said?
What about me?

What about me?
What about us?

What about all the things you had?
What about me?

What about me?
What about love?
What about all the things we had?
What about me?

What about all the things we had?
What about me?
