My lips, on your lips
Your body heat lingers on me
Oh, what a night
God am I obsessed with this man
Of my dreams

So I hide, try to lie
Only the nighting gayles
Sings the truth
But the rushing of my blood
Is like rivers running wild
And I got no control and I know

You're my world!
You're the moon and stars above
You're the reason I know love, love, love
My only cause for being
You're my world!
You're the owner of my heart
Always close though we're apart, you know
You're my heart, my soul, my reason
You're my world

With hands so soft and gentle
You've touched the very core of me
But the rushing of my blood
Is like rivers running wild
And I got no control and I know

You're my world!
You're the moon and stars above
You're the reason I know love, love, love
My only cause for being
You're my world!
You're the owner of my heart
Always close though we're apart, you know
You're my heart, my soul, my reason

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Baby, baby, I'm on fire

Cause you make me come alive

You're my world
You're the reason my love has a name
You're the reason I know love, love, love
My only cause for being
You're my world
You're the owner of my heart
Always close though we're apart, you know
You're my heart, my soul, my reason
You're my world
(You're the moon and stars above)
You're my world
(You're the reason I know love, love, love)
You're my world
My only cause for being
My heart, my soul, my reason
You're my world
