Once in a house on a hill
A boy got angry
He broke into my heart
For a day and a night
I stayed beside him
Until I had no hope
So I came down the hill
Of course I was hurt
But then I started to think

It shouldn't hurt me to be free
It's what I really need
To pull myself together
But if it's so good being free
Would you mind telling me
Why I don't know what to do with myself?

There's a bar by the dock
Where I hide from myself
Drinking with this man
He offered me a cigarette
And I accepted
Cause it's been a very long time

As it burned to the end
I thought of the boy
No one could ever forget

It shouldn't hurt me to be free
It's what I really need
To pull myself together
But if it's so good being free
Would you mind telling me
Why I don't know what to do with myself?

To pull myself together
But if it's so good being free
Would you mind telling me
Why I don't know what to do with myself?

To pull myself together
But if it's so good being free

Would you mind telling me
Why I don't know what to do with myself?
