At what point does a Shakespeare say:

"I feel it's time I write a play.

What subject shall it be today?

A tragedy I've done;

"Lovers twain have been united

Audiences are delighted

No doubt I shall soon be knighted

Royal fame I've won;

"The Queen has come to every show

And, flattering, she feigns to know

A couplet from a verse, also

A refrain from a rhyme;

"But the ones I aim to pleaseth,

Most of all, upon my kneeseth

Are the folk who cough and sneezeth

Through my prose sublime"?
