Rose Rose Rose Red
Will I ever see thee wed
I will marry at thy will sire At thy will
A thousand years gone by
Too late to wonder why
I'm here alone
I'm in my darkest hour
She rose that fell a flower
I should have known
Rose Rose Rose Red
Will I ever see thee wed
Only if you can capture me
CHORUS
Tell me no stories
And I'll tell you no lies
No one wants to hurt me
But everybody tries
And if you think that I've been Waiting for my planets to align It's time you go on
Get your things, get up, get out
I'm doing fine, yeah yeah
Someday these walls will speak
The floors beneath you creek
To call my name
Here in my land of dreams
My whispers turn to screams
And place the blame
Rose Rose Rose Red
Will I ever see thee wed
Only if you discover me
CHORUS x2
For this freedom I have given all hope up
For this darkness I gave my light
For this wisdom I have lost my innocence
Take my petals
And cover me with the night
