I am a scavenger
and I'll take what I need
This isn't personal
We've all got mouths to feed
Supply and demand
Supply and demand

I am a scavenger
A resurrectionist
Yes, I enjoy my work
I'm a perfectionist
Supply and demand
Supply and demand

One man's trash is another's treasure
One man's cash buys another's pleasure

I'll rob from the cradle I'll rob from the grave It's just human traffic and I'm just a slave to the medical community
They gave me my start

They pay by the part
So I'll throw in the heart

I am a scavenger
a vulture if you will and if the price is right I'm not averse to kill
Supply and demand
Supply and demand

I am a scavenger
and as you decompose
My time is running out and my excitement grows
Supply and demand
But surely you'll understand

It isn't your diamonds that I'm after
But I'll take 'em
Don't mind if I do
They'll be nothing to you

It isn't your kisses that I need
But I'll take 'em
Why would we waste them
Why shouldn't I taste them

There's always one door you'll forget to lock and I will be waiting There's always one street that you know you shouldn't walk
and I will be waiting Your loved ones may sleep upon your stone to prevent me
but I will be waiting I will be waiting anticipating

I am a scavenger
I am a scavenger
I am a scavenger
Supply and demand
Supply and demand
Supply and demand
Supply and demand
