Muffin you're a mouse in a big house playing in your cage
Gonna be a big rat some day
You've got cake on your face, you big disgrace,
dripping your tea all over the place.

Tea will, tea will rock you,
Tea will, tea will rock you.
(huh)

Crumpet, you're a young rat, small rat,
Shouting in the street, gonna wreck you're first tea party
You've got cake on your face, you big disgrace
Waving your tail all over the place

Singing:

Tea will, tea will rock you
(C'mon)
Tea will, tea will rock you

Rat, you're a big rat, smart rat,
Scratching with your paws, gonna spread you some plague some day.
C'mon get on the stage, let out your rage,
No-body gonna put you back into your cage.

Tea will, tea will rock you
(Everybody)
Tea will, tea will rock you
