I would be your eyes so you can see the morning light

The world around me

And the day we'll feel to tired I'd close my eyes

And keep you in my heart

I know there's something more

I will be your touch so you can feel once again

my hair and my skin

The day we'll feel to cold we'll stay at home and keep each other warm

I know there's someting more

I know there's someting more

Tell me why do I see you everywhere

Every step I take you're there

Tell me why do I see you everywhere

Oh I can feel there's something more

There's someting more

I will be your ear so you can hear the courts beloved and the melodies

and the day might time will come we'll sing along, because there's someting more

I know there's someting more

I know there's someting more

Tell me why do I see you everywhere

Every step I take you're there

Tell me why do I see you everywhere

There's something more
