You can burn your paper fingers in the ashtray
Drown your swollen lips in my ruby wine
You can shave your heavy head in my carpeted hallway Lie on the floor like so many before, being sure for the first time
You chosen the right clothes to wear, a-ah

You can burn your paper fingers in the ashtray
Drown your swollen lips in my ruby wine
You can shave your heavy head in my carpeted hallway
Is your laugh to erase all the dirt in this place?
Making sure for the last time together is nowhere
A-ah
