who's in a bad mood?
who's in the taxi?
turning the clock back avoiding a fight with this man he is meeting stands in the lobby counting his questions in the neon light sinking under the river sewer line touches the edge of the suburbs back to the beach where a family is waiting on rumors of summer lay out a blanket bring something to feed the birds with all the luck you've had why are your songs so sad? sing from a book
you were reading in bed and took to heart
all of your lives unlead reading in bed
