I never believed in the word lonely
Even when I found myself all alone
I never needed someone else to want me
To make me feel wanted
Cause deep inside I've always known
Who I am
All I am is

True to me
Faithfully
In a world where lies can let you down
I pick myself up off the ground
'Cause I'm true to me
Honestly
I've wrestled with conformity
And all that I can be is true to me

I always believed what people told me
Everyone tells you what you want to hear
I always thought that someone else would save me
But you can only save yourself
And nothing's ever been so clear
Like an open road
I call my own

True to me
Faithfully
In a world where lies can let you down
I pick myself up off the ground
Cause I'm true to me
Honestly
I've wrestled with conformity
And all that I can be is true to me

And it feels like
The sun is here
The sky is clear
And there's nothing but the smell of the rain
That's come and gone

True to me

Faithfully
In a world where lies can let you down
I pick myself up off the ground
Cause I'm true to me
Honestly
I've wrestled with conformity
And all that I can be is true to me
