I got a secret, I'm telling everyone
Don't wanna keep it, I wanna play it dumb
I made a promise, I think I'm ready to break
It's just a question, there's nothing wrong or right
But your intentions could keep you up all night
You play with fire, you need a way to escape

And when the lights go out, go out
We're just beginning
And all around, our eyes are looking down
You spin the bottle round
And round, and round, and round, na na na na na

Truth, Last kiss on the tip of your lips
Really his, Tock tock
Where's your heart beat, beating?
Dare, time's up, are you ready or not?
Tick tick tock, So don't stop
When you get that feeling now-ow-ow
Tock tock, 'cause your heart'd be beating
Now-ow it's just a game

I feel uneasy, I feel a little scared
I see the danger in being unprepared
I try to hide it before I make a mistake

So when the truth is out, it's out
We're just beginning
And not a sound, our eyes are staring down
We spin the bottle round
And round, and round, and round, na na na na na

Truth, Last kiss on the tip of your lips
Really his, Tock tock
Where's your heart beat, beating?
Dare, time's up, are you ready or not?
Tick tick tock, So don't stop
When you get that feeling now-ow-ow
Tock tock, 'cause your heart'd be beating
Now-ow it's just a game

I'm ready, so ready

So take me on (so take me on)
Keep steady, Don't drag this on
And on, and on, and on

Truth, Last kiss on the tip of your lips
Really his, Tock tock
Where's your heart beat, beating?
Dare, time's up, are you ready or not?
Tick tick tock, So don't stop
When you get that feeling

Truth, Last kiss on the tip of your lips
Really his, Tock tock
Where's your heart beat, beating?
Dare, time's up, are you ready or not?
Tick tick tock, So don't stop
When you get that feeling now-ow-ow
Tock tock, 'cause your heart'd be beating
Now-ow it's just a game
