Alone again
Thinking about these past few weeks
And how we made out?
How things can change
In a blink of an eye
We were so good, what happened?

And all these things
Got me wondering why
If you could see there's no way out
And now you've gone away
You left me here
But I still want you

You say it's funny
Don't need ta worry
I think about you all the time I'm shattered
You think it's over
Baby nothing matters
I think about you all the time I'm shattered

I lay awake
Thinking about
The distance we have made somehow
I can't break through, now
I don't know what happened
But I can't go on Still holding on
You're not the one that rocks and runs to know
That we're not the same
It hurts me now to think we're over

You say it's funny
Don't need ta worry
I think about you all the time I'm shattered
You think it's over
Baby nothing matters
I think about you all the time I'm shattered

You say it's funny
Don't need ta worry

I think about you all the time I'm shattered
You think it's over
Baby nothing matters
I think about you all the time I'm shattered

Hear me...
Never thought that we could wind up this way
Hear-ing me...
Feeling stunned
I'm alone

Alone again
Thinking about, how we could end up this way

You say it's funny
Don't need ta worry
I think about you all the time I'm shattered
You think it's over
Baby nothing matters
I think about you all the time I'm shattered

You say it's funny
Don't need ta worry
I think about you all the time I'm shattered(I'm shattered, baby)
You think it's over
Baby nothing matters
I think about you all the time I'm shattered(Shattered, baby)

You say it's funny
Don't need ta worry
I think about you all the time I'm shattered(Shattered,
baby)
You think it's over
Baby nothing matters
I think about you all the time I'm shattered
