So you had some bad luck, life sucks
Can't do nothin' right
You took some wrong turns,
Got burned way too many times
And so you fall back with all that hurt that just don't wanna heal

So then you do the wow me,
This can't be happenin' again
Hey what's the deal man
I can't take much more of this
You put your time in Payed your dues
Believe me I know how you feel

I guess you gotta make a choice
What it is to fail
You can get a little down or get a little mad
When there's stones in the road only one thing to do
You gotta learn to walk with rocks in your shoes
Come on!

I heard some good lies from bad guys
Makin' me their mark
They did a drive by bang, bang
Big hole in my heart
Needed a crash cart, CPR

Sister I was fadin' fast

I had a poor me trophy
Kept it on a shelf
Did the too proud,
Too cool to ask for any help
But when I gave in prayin'
I only got what answered that

And he said,
I guess you gotta make a choice
What it is to fail
You can get a little down or get a little mad
When there's stones in the road only one thing to do

You gotta learn to walk with rocks in your shoes
Come on!
Bitter's like a weed
If you let it grow
It's gonna trip you up, yeah
Somewhere down the road
To get where you're going
There's only one thing to do
You gotta learn to walk with rocks in your shoes
You better learn to walk with rocks in your shoes
Come on

Keep on walkin' with rocks in your shoes
